

THE GROUND TRUTH

Hear and witness the lives of our soldiers in this penetrating film. The shocking ground conflict is only a prelude to even more challenging battles these veterans face upon their return home.

Friday, September 28, 7pm
School of the Arts
45 Prince Street, Rochester, New York
Free admission. Seating is limited.

The Ground Truth is a documentary produced and directed by Patricia Foulkrod, featuring Iraq war veterans discussing their experiences during training and in Iraq. Its focus is on Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) and the medical and mental health needs of significant number of veterans suffering from PTSD.

Join us for a screening of The Ground Truth and panel discussion. Panel discussion members will include family members of war veterans featured in the film as well as experts in the field of veteran care.

The Ground Truth is one of only 15 films on the Oscar "short list" for 2007, and has been hailed by critics across America:

"...the best film I've seen to emerge out of the 9/11 attacks."
– Richard Corliss Time Magazine

"This is undeniably one of the year's most compelling films. Unflinching, disturbing, and fascinating."
– Claudia Puig, USA Today

"Four Stars. The Ground Truth is the documentary any American with an opinion on our involvement in Iraq owes it to his or her conscience to see."
– Ty Burr, Boston Globe

Sponsored by the Veteran Care Project – a grassroots group of concerned families, veterans and citizens who support our men and women in uniform.
